Luke 24: 1-12: On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, 'Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: "The Son of Man must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the third day be raised again."' Then they remembered his words.

When they came back from the tomb, they told all these things to the Eleven and to all the others. It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the others with them who told this to the apostles. But they did not believe the women, because their words seemed to them like nonsense. Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. Bending over, he saw the strips of linen lying by themselves, and he went away, wondering to himself what had happened.

Luke 24: 13-35: Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them; but they were kept from recognising him. He asked them, 'What are you discussing together as you walk along?'

They stood still, their faces downcast. One of them, named Cleopas, asked him, 'Are you the only one visiting Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in these days?'

'What things?' he asked.

'About Jesus of Nazareth,' they replied. 'He was a prophet, powerful in word and deed before God and all the people. The chief priests and our rulers handed him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified him; but we had hoped that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel. And what is more, it is the third day since all this took place. In addition, some of our women amazed us. They went to the tomb early this morning but didn't find his body. They came and told us that they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but they did not see Jesus.'

He said to them, 'How foolish you are, and how slow to believe all that the prophets have spoken! Did not the Messiah have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?' And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning himself.

HOLY TRINITY CHURCH ATTLEBOROUGH

"History of the Church and its Surroundings"

Talk and Exhibition
In the Church and Hall

Thursday 25th April at 7.00p.m.

Admission. £5      In aid of the Tower Fund

It may be Easter, but Foodbank at Holy Trinity continues to open every Wednesday and Friday (except Good Friday)..

All children who are part of the families we support have received an Easter egg thanks to your generous donations

Demand is growing rapidly again, so stocks are running low.

There isn't room this week to list things we're in need of - Anything you are able to donate will be very much appreciated.

TEATOWELS

The kitchen drawer is rather depleted. Maybe some tea towels are lurking in your laundry basket or ironing pile?

If you have an excess of tea towels in your kitchen, and could donate one or more to the church for Sunday coffee, shared meals, Trinitea lunch/teas etc. it would be very much appreciated.

Any items for the Notice Sheet need to be with us by 11.00 am on Wednesday, either by contacting Jon or via email on jondav8@gmail.com or htachurchoffice@gmail.com
